The Education Core

The Winthrop Teacher Education Program is a developmental and clinically-based program that provides teacher candidates with opportunities to construct knowledge and develop skills through course work that is integrally linked to practical experiences in schools. Candidates learn by doing under the tutelage of expert mentor teachers and supportive university instructors and supervisors. The core courses require candidates to learn about and work with learners with diverse backgrounds and needs, including, but not limited to, learners with special needs, English language learners, learners identified as gifted, and learners living in poverty. Pedagogical focus is on assessment, classroom management and the learning environment, technology, and professional learning and ethical practice. Together with content area courses, the array of experiences in schools and well-sequenced, coordinated content in the education core provides candidates in all teacher education fields the opportunity to develop the knowledge, skills, and dispositions needed for success as a teacher in 21st century schools.

Field performance expectations: In order to build an inclusive classroom, teacher candidates utilize the principles of Universal Design for Learning (UDL) to implement lessons that integrate academic and social skill strategies to support diverse learner needs. Candidates enrolled in EDCO 660 observe and collect classroom data on learners and teachers related to climate and procedures, learner interests and abilities, available technology, and school environment. Candidates will develop and implement one lesson that contains appropriate academic and social skills strategies. The lesson must meet the needs of diverse learners (including those with an Individualized Education Plan) and adhere to UDL guidelines. Field experience requirements may take place in one of your existing methods class field placements or will be assigned. Students who are not meeting the field placement through an existing methods course must complete a minimum of 12 hours at their assigned school. These hours must be logged into and verified through Via LiveText. Teacher candidates must earn a C or better on the field performance assessment to earn a C or better in the course. A grade of C or better in EDUC660 is required for successful completion of the Winthrop University initial teacher preparation program.

Course Expectations

Academic work:

- I expect that all students will be prepared for every class. This includes reading the text or other assigned readings prior to class.
- Late assignments will be penalized 10% per day (this includes weekends and non-class days). No assignments will be accepted after one week. Internet failure or non-accessibility is not an acceptable excuse for late work.
- Work will be submitted to either Blackboard, Via Livetext, or Hard copy as per instructions on Blackboard or the instructor.
- As per College of Education policy, assignments will be graded and returned within 14 days of the date the assignment is due, not the date the assignment is submitted by the student.

Cell Phones and other Mobile Devices:

Cell phones and other mobile devices are excellent instructional tools; however, they should never be a distraction or a source of disruption in an academic setting. Therefore, during instructional time when these devices are NOT being used as a component of the course, they should be silent and out of sight. Disruptions to the learning environment by electronic devices may result in point deductions from your participation grade.

Recording Clause:

With the availability of hardware and software enabling audio and video capturing of material, lectures, courses, etc., please be mindful of the following policy established by the Department of Counseling, Leadership and Educational Studies. Violations of any form noted below are considered violations of the Student Code of Conduct policy located in the Student Handbook.

No recordings of any format (audio and/or video) may be captured WITHOUT direct permission from the instructor. This can be a violation of copyright. No recordings, even those approved by the instructor, may be posted to any Internet hosted location, copied/duplicated, or shared. If the instructor makes the decision to allow such activity, the student is responsible for maintaining the integrity of such recordings and will be held liable should the integrity be compromised.

Attendance:

Attendance Policy: Students will be permitted one absence during the semester without a point deduction for attendance. Each additional absence, regardless of reason (unless extenuating circumstances for which documentation can be provided) will result in a loss of 5 points per day. Three tardies, including leaving class early or arriving late, are equivalent to one absence or 5pts. total. If a student should miss more than three (3) scheduled classes, the student will receive an F for the course. In the event of an absence, it is your responsibility to work with a peer to assist you. It is not the instructor's responsibility to re-teach a concept due to an absence. Points will be deducted and calculated at the end of the semester.

Communication with Instructor

- I can be reached via email, phone, text, or video conferencing. I will respond to all means of communication as promptly as possible and within 24 hours of receipt. Note: If you require a rapid response to a question or need to reach the instructor quickly, text (803-517-1450).
- Check with your host teacher to establish the best method of communication for him/her. All emails to your host teacher and me should be written in a professional language and manner.
- Please allow 24 hours for us to reply. If you are in crisis or have an emergency, naturally you should call us as soon as possible.

Code of Conduct:

- As noted in the student Conduct Code: "Responsibility for good conduct rests with students as adult individuals." The policy on student academic misconduct is outlined in the Student Conduct Code.

Academic Dishonesty:

All work is expected to be your original work and should indicate your deepened knowledge of the course topics through readings, discussions, experiences, reflections. It is not appropriate to submit work that has been previously submitted for another course or by another student.

- Cheating, plagiarism, or any other form of academic dishonesty will result in failure for the targeted assignment and may result in your receiving an 'F' in this course. For examples of infractions of academic discipline, please consult the Undergraduate Bulletin. Some instances of academic misconduct include providing or receiving unauthorized assistance in academic work, using the same work for two or more courses, and presenting someone else's work as your own.

Dispositions:

Professional Dispositions: As a student in the College of Education, you are expected to uphold the highest standards of the profession as you relate to students, families, and communities. Each candidate is expected to exhibit the following four professional dispositions in their work with colleagues, faculty and staff in University and PK-12 settings, and PK-12 students and their families: Fairness, Integrity, Communication, and Commitment. Students can be provided with formative feedback on their professional dispositions in each class through the Professional Dispositions Student Assessment (PDSA), which is completed in Live Text by the faculty member. When there are concerns about a student's professional behavior, a Professional Dispositions and Skills Intervention form is completed and an intervention developed by a program area committee. The full policy can read at <http://www.winthrop.edu/coe/sas/default.aspx?id=11517>
