

WINTHROP UNIVERSITY

COLLEGE OF VISUAL AND PERFORMING ARTS

DEPARTMENT OF THEATRE AND DANCE

SCHOLARSHIP INFORMATION FOR 2025-2026

The Winthrop University Department of Theatre and Dance offers scholarships to qualified freshmen and transfer students who demonstrate a high level of achievement and plan to be theatre or dance majors. They awarded through competitive auditions or portfolio reviews/interviews. On campus Audition dates for students entering in Fall 2025 will be March 1, 2025. Also we will be at SETC, March 19-23, 2025 and can audition you there. The primary portal for auditions will be that you can submit a video audition via : <http://getacceptd.com/for-students>.

Dean's Meritorious Award (DMA) is a special talent grant awarded for artistic prowess.

For in-state students the DMA ranges from $1000-$3000.

For out-of-state students The DMA grant includes an out-of-state tuition waiver.

THE DEPARTMENT OF THEATRE AND DANCE

The programs of the Department of Theatre and Dance in the College of Visual and Performing Arts are among the most outstanding in the state and southeast region. Degrees include B.A. Dance, B.A. Dance with Teacher Certification, B.A. Theatre with concentrations in Performance, Design/Technical Theatre, Musical Theatre, and B.A. Theatre with Teacher Certification. Winthrop University is accredited by the National Association of Schools of Dance (NASD) and National Association of Schools of Theatre (NAST).

APPLICATION PROCEDURES

There are two options for auditioning for a theatre or dance scholarship

OPTION I: Attend a scholarship audition session at Winthrop University

1. Complete and return the Theatre and Dance Scholarship Application Form at least two weeks prior to your chosen audition date (attached at the end of this document).
2. Include a letter of recommendation from a drama or dance teacher who is familiar with your performance, design, or technical theatre skills and abilities.
3. Include a headshot of yourself.

AUDITION/INTERVIEW REQUIREMENTS AND CONSIDERATIONS

- Applicants should come to Johnson Hall by 10:00 a.m. on their audition/interview date.
- During your visit you will be given an opportunity to talk with the faculty and students in the program, to tour the beautiful facilities in Johnson Hall, and to have your audition or portfolio review/interview.
- You can expect to be on campus until about noon.
- You do not have to be admitted to Winthrop University in order to audition, but preference will be given to admitted students when the faculty meets to select students for the scholarship awards.
- The faculty considers academic achievement along with talent demonstrated at the audition.

- To be considered for a Dean's Meritorious Scholarship you do not have to select a specific concentration at this point as long as you plan to major in theatre or dance.
- Applicants should expect notification about the scholarships around the end of March.

I. Dance Auditions (for majors interested in dance or dance education)

- Prepare two short dance combinations of different styles, no more than 2 minutes each.
- Please no tumbling, dance team, cheerleading, or tap routines.
- Dress appropriately for dance and bring necessary footwear.
- Dancers will perform the pieces for a panel of theatre and dance faculty.
- Dancers will have a brief interview with the faculty panel after the audition.
- Dancers should provide their music on a CD or pluggable digital device.

II. Theatre Auditions (for majors interested in performance, musical theatre, and theatre education)

- Option A (Performance): Prepare two short audition monologues, no more than 2 minutes each. Pieces should be contrasting (one could be classical, one modern; or one comedic and the other dramatic, etc.) and should be within the actor's age and physical range.
- Option B (For Musical Theatre): Prepare one monologue of any dramatic genre and two contrasting songs (32 bars each of music).
- Musical Theatre: Prepare two short dance combinations of different styles, no more than 2 minutes each.
- Singers there will be a live accompanist available, please bring your sheet music.
- Actors will perform the pieces for a panel of the theatre and dance faculty.
- Actors will have a brief interview with the faculty panel after the audition.

III. Portfolio Review/Interview (theatre majors interested in theatre design and technology)

- If you have any examples of lighting, costume or set designs, you will have an opportunity to show your work to the theatre faculty and discuss your work. Your portfolio may include renderings, ground plans, concept statements, schedules, production photos, or anything else that reflects your theatre experience.
- If you have not done any formal design work but have samples of drawings or other artwork, you may present those to the faculty
